Handbook Summary 2022 - 2025

The Sport Management major is designed for people who seek careers in Australian and international Sport management. Specialist subjects provide students with a capacity to understand and function within the increasingly dedicated context in which sport is played, organised and managed. Students who complete this major will be equipped with the skills and knowledge to manage sport experiences pertaining to globalisation and emerging contemporary issues in sport. Graduates find career employment at all levels of government as well as within the private sector for both commercial and non-commercial organisations. Positions include project management of facilities and events, management and coordination of leisure, sport and civic event departments, sport marketing, player management and sport public relations, elite sport development, sport and leisure programming.

Handbook Summary 2026

The Sport Management major aims to equip you with the essential knowledge and skills to build a career in sports management within Australia and globally. You will learn to navigate the constantly changing sports landscape through specialised courses that address key developments, such as the increased use of technology in sport management and the growing social importance of sport. Additionally, you'll have access to unique opportunities for hands-on professional experience with leading sports clubs and organisations partnering with us across various subjects. Career options are diverse, covering roles in government and private sectors, such as facility and event management, sports and leisure programming, marketing, public relations, player management, elite sports development, and organising civic, leisure, and sports events.
