Description This subject involves the close reading of literary texts to explore the role and function of literature in contemporary society and build transferable skills relevant to both academic study and a wide range of professional careers. It asks students to consider the purpose of literature as a means of understanding the ideas and lived experiences that shape the world around us. Through the exploration of primary texts from Australia and across the globe, students will develop strong communication and critical thinking skills, as well as the ability to engage with diverse perspectives and cultures.
