Description People have been waging war and killing each other since time immemorial. Indeed, the warrior could challenge for the title of “world’s oldest profession.” This subject will take you on an intellectual journey, around the globe and across time, as we seek answers to the following questions. Why do humans fight? Is it in our genes? How do we account for the rise of the warrior? How should you start a war? How should you fight a war? How do you win a war? Can war be just? What can be done to prevent war? How does technology impact war? Should we fret about nuclear war and global annihilation? Should women fight on the front lines?
